

MOBILITY SERIES:

MOBILITY MATTERS | CANE CONFESSIONS

Author, Motivational Speaker, Ghostwriter and World Traveler, faith-based Amy Bovaird will bring energy and enthusiasm to your audience. One of the important tools for coping with adversity is attitude and Bovaird uses plenty of humorous anecdotes to illustrate her points. Bovaird doesn't just speak. She involves the participants so that it's a two-way sharing. In her signature talk, she speaks frankly on overcoming obstacles in vision and hearing loss. As a wife and mother, she faced devastating losses of twins, a miscarriage and her marriage. Bovaird has also weathered the losses of her father and sister to cancer. Through it all, she weaves tales of God's ministering and lessons through the peaks and valleys of her experiences.

TIPS FOR VISUALLY IMPAIRED INDIVIDUALS

1. Slow Down. Take a few extra minutes to assess your surroundings and avoid potential accidents.
2. Use consistent, strong (natural-type) lighting throughout your house. Use floor or table lamps with bendable fixtures to minimize glare.
3. Get honest. Tell others how they can best help you.
4. Carry a small, rechargeable flashlight for dark areas and at night.
5. Have specific areas for frequently-used items, such as your keys, wallet, checkbook, and purse.
6. Be pro-active with doctors, any changes in your vision and remain up-to-date on strides in medical advances.
7. Keep a positive outlook and a sense of humor about your life!
